We will minister with purpose and intent: constantly keeping our eyes on the time, seeking the lost before it is too late. We will strive to nurture the value that each and every individual has and to seek potential over problems, hearts over appearances, and relational bridges void of religious walls.

“See! The Winter is past; the rains are over and gone. Flowers appear on the earth; the season of singing has come, the cooing of doves is heard in our land. The fig tree forms its early fruit; the blossoming vines spread their fragrance.”
Song of Solomon 2:11-13

We would like to announce the engagement of our son, Justin, to Jessica Henriquez. Jessica has long been a part of Four Winds history and currently serves as “mom” to many Native children. We are excited to watch the ministry of these two unite and blossom into the life and ministry that God has in store for them!

Christmas Give-Away, Cheyenne Children Services

Since 2001, Four Winds has gone from being a place of secular entertainment to a place of refuge and healing for so many people, adults and children alike.

Numerous lives have been pulled from despair and darkness and found new life in Jesus, finding full healing from past hurts. We are honored to be chosen by God to do His work for Native Americans in Montana.

It is through your continued support that we are able to reach the lost, hurt, and broken. As the time draws nigh, we are asking for your continued support to continue through the last leg of the race.
